

Press Release: 2018-05-09

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The NAKED WAITERS UKULELE GROUP FROM PROVO, UTAH AND CYNTHIA KINNUNEN FROM GUELPH, ONTARIO ARE COMING TO NANAIMO .

The Nanaimo Ukulele Festival, July 14th and 15th, 2018, is proud to present ukulele masters, The Naked Waiters Ukulele Group from Provo, Utah and Cynthia Kinnunen from Guelph, Ontario

The Naked Waiters are an acoustic, ukulele-based group from Provo, Utah, USA. They specialize in fun, melt-your-heart melodies with handsome harmonies.

They are Kim Bjerga, Clark Holmes, and Andy Nufer.

Cynthia Kinnunen is a talented singer and ukulele player who is passionate about the role that music can play in our lives, our homes and our communities. She encourages everyone to learn and make music, no matter their age or ability. www.cynthiakmusic.com

On Saturday, July 14th, The Naked Waiters and Cynthia Kinnunen will be presenting ukulele workshops. Check out the workshop page on the website.

The Naked Waiters and Cynthia Kinnunen will be performing on Saturday evening at 7:00 p.m. at the Neighbourhood Church, 4951 Rutherford Road.

Tickets are $25. Available online at www.nanaimoukulelefestival.ca and at Arbutus Music in Nanaimo.

Everyone is welcome to the Sunday afternoon Ukulele Jammin' Jamboree. The house will rock with the music of Parksville's own Revolving Doors. Bring your ukes and play and sing along. The fun starts at 3:00 p.m. Cost is free (donations are welcome). This is a family friendly event.

The Revolving Doors (Bill Naylor, Dean Williams, Ade Barnum, and Liz DeBarros) from Parksville. Will be performing on Sunday afternoon. Instruments will be swapped, lead singers will change and fun will be had by all. Most band members play several different instruments and the U-bass will likely change hands several times. They will be performing covers of many well-known and well-loved folk/rock tunes on their ukes.

Everyone is welcome to this family friendly event (ukulele players and wanna be uke players) to the Neighbourhood Church,
4951 Rutherford Road, Nanaimo

Visit the Nanaimo Ukulele Festival website for more information.
nanaimoukulelefestival.ca or on Nanaimo Ukulele Festival on Facebook.

Contact Carol Johns, carol.johns1@gmail.com or 250-756-1959